

Udawalawe

Udawalawe National Park is located in the south of Sri Lanka and is a popular destination for those hoping to spot wild elephants. It is quite possibly the best place in Sri Lanka to see elephants throughout the year as there are a few hundred elephants within the park, other animals which can be seen are Water Buffaloes, Wild boars, Spotted Deers, Mongooses, Crocodiles. Duration of safari in the park: 3 hours