

Weligama

The excursion starts with a visit to the weekly market, which is particularly colorful and lively in the morning. Then we will take our way through the village to a figure carved in stone, the Kushta Raja (Sri Lankan king), as well as to one of the many small, old temples. The return journey takes you through the beautiful landscape of the south of Sri Lanka.