

Tea factory

This excursion is a “must” for tea lovers. The path leads inland past rice fields. Learn everything about the cultivation and processing of the world-famous Ceylon tea and let us invite you to taste it. In addition to tea, you will also experience the production of rubber, another well-known export item of the country.